

Accessing Analyzing Teaching for Student Results Materials

Please follow this procedure to access the ATSR materials on the RBT Web site.

1. In your Internet browser, enter the Web site: www.RBTeach.com
2. In the top right hand corner of the window, click the Log in button. You will then be taken to a Log on page. Click I have an account. Enter Username: ATSR and Password: ATSR.

NOTE: If you have previously created/logged into a personal account or another program, first Log out of that account with the button in the top right of your window, then Log in with the ATSR credentials.

3. From the top menu bar, select Products & Resources. A drop-down menu will appear – select Downloads.

You will then be taken to the RBT Downloads page. On the left-hand side menu, under Downloads select Analyzing Teaching for Student Results (ATSR) Program. You will then see the page of selections specifically for ATSR.

4. If you wish to sign up for the RBT Newsletter, either use the button in top right of the window or the link in the box on the left side.

Please remember that RBT has permission to provide selected articles to program participants only. Other materials are copyrighted by RBT. Thank you for not sharing this access information and for not duplicating these materials.
